

UNITED STATES GEOGRAPHIC BOARD

688

See work card

Adopted
name

San Andres

Thing named

Mountains, Central New Mexico, east of Rio Grande from lat. 32° 30'

*Approved
March 3-1920*

Names

Authorities

San Andreas Range

Gannett

" " "

Las Cruces Sheet

San Andreas Mts.

Bull. 389 U.S.G.S., 1909, map and text

Encyclopedia Britannica

Rand, McNally Atlas 1919

Smithsonian Inst., vol 19, Nat. Mus. Herbarium

Local usage

State School of Mines, Bull. 1, 1915, "Mineral Resources of N. Mex", by Fayette A. Jones, Director.

Handbook of N. Mex. Published for Louisiana-Purchase Exposition, 1904. Compiled and edited by Max Frost and Paul A. F. Walter.

Recommendation of Executive Committee

Submitted by Hon. Philip S. Smith,

Date U.S.G.S. Jan. 26, 1920

This card prepared by C.S.S.

over San Andres

JB
cm

History of N. Mex. by Hon. Wm. G. Ritch, who for 12 years served as Secretary or Governor. Published in 1885. On map the mountains are spelled San Andres; in text San Andreas

San Andres Mts.

Land Office map

Map of New Mexico by Gilbert Thompson, about 1909.

Tularosa Atlas Sheet of U.S.G.S.

Rand, McNally map, 1884.

"Interesting Items regarding N. Mex.", by W. F. M. ⁿArmy, Acting Governor of New Mexico, 1873.

History of New Mexico, by Hon. Wm. G. Ritch, map only, (in text the name is spelled San Andreas).